City Council Considering Large Expenditure for New Crossing

Expenditure for New Crossing

(Special to The Times-Dirpatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., August 3.—R. Lewis

Dibrell, chairman; A. W. Traylor and W. P. Hodnett, a committee appointed at a recent mass-meeking of interested business men, appeared before the City Council last night with a petition urging the Council to appropriate the necessary money for the erection of a bridge across Dan River below the city for farmers, it being held that the presence of the street railway system in the lower port of the city and on the foot bridge separating the two sections of the city has been the means of driving the greater portion of the country trade to other localities.

A former petition, signed by several hundred citizens, had already been presented to the Council. The matter was referred to the Committee on Streets. hundred citizens, had already been presented to the Council. The matter was referred to the Council. The matter was referred to the Committee on Streets. There is little doubt but that the bridge will be hullt. The proposed bridge will cost the city somewhere in the neighborhood of thirty thousand dollars.

A joint committee from the board of county supervisors and the Commercial Association yesterday viewed the ground for the proposed straightening of the Greensboro, N. C., road between this city and Slokesland, for the purpose of eliminating the six crosssings over the tracks of the Southern Railway between the city and Slokesland. The only thing in the way of the proposed improvement is the presence of certain colored property owners along the line of the desired right of way, who are inclined to give trouble. It is said that a reasonable amount will be offered the owners of the desired property, and that if they will not accept the offer, condemnation proceedings will be instituted.

RESUSCITATED.

The Staunton School Board Long a Non-Existent Body.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., August 3.—After heing practically non-existent for two months, the board of trustees of the city public schools was reconstituted last night by the City Council, five new mempublic schools was reconstituted last night by the City Council, five new members being elected, to serve with Hon. A. C. Braxton, who for that period has been the only legally qualified member. Last June, after the supposed board had elected thirty-five teachers for the next session of the public schools, the fact was brought to light that the terms of three members had expired in April, since which time two vacancies, occasioned by deaths, had been filled by the remaining four, only one of whom was actually a member and qualified to take such action. This left five vacancies, which have now been supplied. The new board will proceed to elect teachers for the ensuing session, as the first election was invalid. The new members of the board are Charles Catlett, William Wholey, McH. Holliday, J. Martin Perry and V. L. Denny.

Timothy O'Connor Dies at the Age of 103.

(Special to The Times Dispatch.)

WINCHESTER. VA. August 3.—The remains of Timothy O'Connor, probably the oldest man in the State, who died in Bitaunion, Va. were interred here to-day in the Catholle-Cemeiery. Mr. O'Connor was a native of Ireland, but came to this country when a boy. He was one hundred and three years of age, having been a remarkably web preserved man, rotaining most of his faculties in the end. He had lived near here ever since coming to this country. He is survived by seven children.

BURGLARS MAKE A GOOD HAUL

Ernest Connahan Killed at the An Oil Tank Cut Open by Flying Pieces of the Safe and Deluges the Mill.

> (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) REMINGTON, VA., August 3.-Burglars forced an entrance into Mr. P. B. $2,000 in bonds, checks and currency, besides carrying off insurance policies, receipts and private papers of value only to Mr. Lewis.

The hinges and combination to the safe containing the valuables, were broken with a heavy sledge hammer, the cracks filled with powder and the safe was completely wrecked.

A large oil tank was cut open by flying pieces of iron and everything was deluged with oil. A pocket knife, a piece of candle and a sledge hammer, marked with a cross and a line, are the only clues the burglars left.

MURDER UNPUNISHED.

Hid His Money in the Barn and It Was Burned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBUEG, VA., August 3.—

SOMETHING DOING.

There was excitement a plenty throughout the afternoon. Among the most unruly animals in the ring was Dr. Eugene Block's chestnut gelding. The Sportsman, who at first threw his owner at one of the hurdles and later refused the jumps and left the ring, clearing a five-foot gate.

R. B. Ferneyhough, riding his brother's bay gelding. Tempest, took a header at one of the jumps, but saved himself from injury by sticking to his mount's mane until he could be brought to a standstill. Courtland Smith's groom was thrown heavily in the thoroughbred hunter class, but escaped with a skinned face.

Class 36, green hunters, was one of the largest ever seen in a Virginia ring, there being forly-three entries. The competition was so close that the judges had to send Allen Pott's chestinut mare, Firelight, and Charles W. Smith's bay mare.

Cygnet, over the hurdles a second time to decide the winner.

The final class of the day—that for the hunt teams—furnished a most inspiring scene when the blue ribbon winners from the Cameron Run Hunt Club went at the jumps, three abreast, and cleared them in magnificent style, amid enthusiastic suplause.
